VOLUME 1

FOREWORD

We, the senior class of 1940, present to our parents, friends, and teachers, Jamestown High School's first annual. We have tried to portray a true picture of the school year 1939-1940. May our beginning inspire future classes to go forward, always striving for the best.

We are grateful to Miss Ora Sublette and Miss Elizabeth Hanner, senior sponsors, whose vision and planning have made possible this accomplishment. To Mr. White, our principal, we express our appreciation for his leadership and encouragement in all of our school activities.

THE MOUNTAIN

The mountain is a large, rounded rock formation that rises from the ground. It is covered in a dense forest of trees and shrubs. The mountain is surrounded by a valley filled with fields and small settlements. The sky is a pale blue with a few wispy clouds. The overall scene is a peaceful and scenic landscape.

CLASS HISTORY

In the fall of 1936 one hundred and thirty-three freshmen entered Jamestown High School. This was the largest freshmen class in the history of the school. It surpassed not only in numbers but also in many school activities:

During the freshman year we were guided by M. B. Sipson and Miss Alma Andrews. After a few had dropped by the wayside, we were sent on to the sophomore class. Again Mr. Simpson was with us and also Miss Parker.

The junior year was a busy one for every one. The outstanding event of this year was the junior-senior banquet at the O. Henry Hotel in Greensboro, March 24, 1939. Miss Speer and Miss Hanner were our advisers and home room teachers.

Then dawned the Senior year, destined to be one of the outstanding years of our class history. The sponsoring of an annual was one of our accomplishments. The social highlight was the banquet given us by the juniors at the King Cotton Hotel, April 19, 1940. Our advisers were Misses Hanner and Sublette.

Howard Moran was chosen the best citizen in the school and was awarded the Civitan award.

Class members have participated in music, athletics, debating, dramatics, and scholastic affairs. The last great event will be getting our diplomas.

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

It was 1950 and Ruby had just arrived in New York from a transcontinental flight. I met her at the air port and took her to my hotel suite. There we immediately began to talk of all our classmates and together we were able to name them all and to tell where they were and what they were doing.

It was not at all difficult to secure information of Neece Osborne because on the headlines of the sports pages could be found, "Neece Osborne, star player of the New York Yankees, 1950 World Series" Neece says Harold Hall was a banker on Wall Street.

Polly Jenson is a model for an outstanding artist in Philadelphia. Verna Moser is living with her and writing poetry for the Atlantic Monthly.

When Major Bowes had Jamestown as the honor city Margaret Phillips played the piano and now has a job in Radio City.

Perry Smith owns a large opera house. Ruth Davis is doing great opera singing.

Virginia Journey is a designer of fashions in Paris.

In a little town in the midwest Judge Marvin Warren is hearing a case against Newling Ritchie for not sending his children to school. Newling is a farmer.

Katherine Self is a nurse. She specializes in patients. Working in the same hospital is Opal Lanier.

Mabel Waynick is happy as a lark; her basketball team has just won the state championship.

James Fink has finally settled down and is operating a small country dry goods store.

Mildred Bowman is entertaining the "Big Shots" in a New York night club with her singing and tapping.

J.W. Wright, our most athletic boy, is now a coach of basketball at Notre Dame.

Olin Neese, our handsome Romeo who thrilled the girls in high school is now replacing Tyrone Power.

Sitting on the front porch of his home with a corn cob pipe in his mouth and with his feet on the wall, is Talmadge Johnston, supervisor of a hill-billy farm.

Strange to say, Charles Frazier is now a barker in Barnum and Bailey Circus.

Sitting in "Long Champs", a famous N.Y. restaurant, is the world famous millionairess, Nell Montgomery. She has established a fund for retiring the J. H. S. teachers.

Soon after leaving school Roberta Hall went to work in an office in Winston Salem.

In the factory Maylan Fulp is now very business like, after all his Physic did him some good.

Charles Metters is now a professor of French at Harvard. He is a confirmed old bachelor.

Margaret Morgan is sitting at home waiting for her husband, Jimmy.

Kathleen Mathews and Ruby Pendry are air hostesses on big government planes.

John Self is a dray boy for the "Big Star Store" in Greensboro.

At the head of Carmichael's Clothing Stores, scattered all over the U. S. is none other than Odell Carmichael, the founder of the chain.

That neat Laura Venable is head lady in a dress shop in Denver, Colorado.

Darrell Luquer is a foreman in the knitting department of Adams Millis.

Frank Self has purchased a small grocery store and he and his charming wife, Ruth, are happy.

Mary Ruth Dillon is a Home Economics teacher

Our genius, Howard Moran, is far in the field of politics. It is rumored that he will run for governor of N. C. in the next election.

John Robert Borum is a lieutenant in the navy. His wife is waiting for him in every port.

Raymond Skeen is at the head of the Skeen Transport Lines. He seems to be having difficulties with keeping his trucks going.

Irene Kersey is in charge of a nursery.

At the head of the Red Cross is Hazel Biggs. She is the most capable leader since Sue Barton.

Rivalling Alice Marble as tennis champion is our own Louise Modlin.

Now working for the New York Times is Virginia Haley. She is well-known for her journalistic work.

A school of music in St. Louis, Mo. Marguerite Campbell is teaching piano.

Next to Patrick Henry everyone rates Homer Hubbard in his oratorical ability. Recently he won a medal in a great international debate.

From London we can hear the famous radio correspondent, Jack Futrelle.

Mary Elizabeth Doggett is stenographer for Ford Motor Co. in Detroit. She drives a Mercury.

Carolyn Wilson is an artist and some of her masterpieces hang in the N.Y. art gallery.

Annie E. Lasley, after 10 years has returned from Reno and is looking for husband number three.

Juanita Wagoner and are married and living a very happy life in Scrapper Town.

Iris Floyd, a missionary, and her husband a famous foot specialist are on a furlough from Africa where they have been stationed.

Ila Mae Cook and Nora Lee Phillips have a tea room in High Point; they are still flirting with all strange men.

Billy Fowler, the great evangelist, is in the South Sea Islands holding a revival.

Clyde Johnson is a horse trainer at Ranch X on the great western plains.

Mildred Witcher lives in Switzerland and has a herd of goats.

Josephine Hodgins is in California, basking in the sunshine, after having made a fortune selling candy.

Thelma Fulp and Iva Mae Hix are expressing their personality in their own kitchens among the pots and pans. French verbs don't worry them now.

Connie Jones is personal advisor to Wally Simpson Windsor.

Catherine Clodfelter is in Canada teaching the Doinne Quins dramatics.

JAMESTOWN HI-LIGHTS

Another school activity that has been a success is the newspaper, JAMESTOWN HI-LIGHTS. Those members of the senior class and of other classes who are on the staff and who have worked faithfully for its success deserve much praise. The sponsors for the paper are Misses Doughton and Hicks. Seniors who served on the staff are:
